

The Girl with the Indian Emerald

The Girl with the Indian Emerald

2 x 90' or 4 x 45' / Mini-Series / Genre: Melodrama, Family

Young teacher Annie Krüger has just gotten a call from India: her father has disappeared without a trace from his hotel in Jaipur. Worried, she leaves for India, where she quickly becomes acquainted with the beauty of the country, as well as with the enormous disparity between poor and rich, the caste system and the “outsider” status of young women. Annie soon finds herself drawn to two men, both from diametrically opposed backgrounds: Arun, the fabulously wealthy son of the last Maharajah, and quick-witted Karan from the slums of Jaipur. As she penetrates deeper and deeper into the tight-lipped Indian society, she lands in the clutches of the country’s most powerful family, whose matriarch jealously guards a shameful secret. Finally, Annie learns the truth about her roots and her identity – a truth that shakes her to the core of her being.

Cast:
Stephanie Stumph
Peter Prager
Omar El-Saeidi
Faraz Khan
Suzanne von Borsody

Script: Natalie Scharf
 Music: Siggi Mueller
 Director of Photography: Alexander Fischerkoesen
 Director: Michael Karen
 Produced in: India
 Produced by: UFA Fiction in cooperation with Seven Dogs Filmproduktion
 Worldwide Distribution: ZDF Enterprises / www.zdf-enterprises.de

