

Moving from hell to high-rises

THE DOCUMENTARY department of the German distributor ZDF has a rich roster of programming for MIPTV. Priorities include Verdun — Descent Into Hell (52 minutes), which investigates the 300-day First World War battle; Expedition Wallacea (52 minutes,) which tells the story of an underwater expedition; Black September (90 minutes), which examines the terrorist attack at the 1972 Munich Olympics; Living In The Sky (50 minutes), which looks at high-rise life; Turning The World Upside Down (43 minutes), which examines the expanding circumference of the earth; and The Real Neanderthal Man (45 minutes), which reviews the latest scientific facts about the era.