

An average superhero

ZDF ENTERPRISES brings three series to MIP-COM. Martin Morning (104 x 10 mins) is the story of an apparently average nine-year-old boy who is transformed every morning into a very un-average being, such as a superhero, a dragon — even a vampire. Barbazan (13 x 5 mins) is a dedicated but hapless magician, whose great inspiration is Houdini. And Rintindumb (75 x 90 secs) is a series based on the canine sidekick of Lucky Luke, the popular French cartoon character.

Martin Morning (ZDF Enterprises)