

MIPCOM 2011 has recorded nearly double the number of photo-calls of a typical year, including a host of famous faces from Hollywood as the worlds of feature film and TV draw ever closer

Following the recent success of his 3D feature-length documentary Cave Of Forgotten Dreams, veteran German filmmaker Werner Herzog (Nosferatu The Vampyre, Fitzcarraldo) is at MIPCOM to present his latest documentary Into The Abyss – A Tale Of Death, A Tale Of Life, an in-depth examination of the personalities of American convicts awaiting the death penalty. The film was commissioned by German state broadcaster ZDF
