NEW PRODUCT:

Flemming: (Crime/suspense, 5x45 min., 1x90 min. pilot) Psychologist and criminologist Vince Flemming's specialty is "reading" people, interpreting the tiniest nuances that will help him track down a murder suspect.

The Killing, 2nd Season: (Crime/suspense, 10x1 hr.) A twisting tale of top-level cover-ups, betrayals and lies set in a time of fear—that of Islamic terrorism.

Whiteout: (Crime/suspense, 2x90 min.) The head of security in a Scottish biotech lab that develops vaccines must track down a stolen virus before it's released.

The Secret of the Whales: (Drama, 2x90 min.) After her father, a marine biologist, is killed in a dubious explosion, Anna takes up with an environmental activist to uncover a conspiracy involving an energy giant in this eco-thriller.

Hope: (Drama, 2x90 min.) Examines the tumultuous life of the first female doctor in Germany, Hope Bridges Adams Lehmann.

Dance Academy: (Children's, 52x26 min.) Fifteen-year-old Tara Webster, who grew up on a farm in outback Australia, makes it into the prestigious National Academy of Dance.

The Biblical Plagues: (Doc., 3x52 min.) Scriptures, scientists, historians and theologians prove that the accounts of the Ten Plagues were based on actual events.

Islam and the West: (Doc., 3x52 min.) Traces the history of Islam in the light of its reception in the West.

South Africa—The Land of Hope: (Doc., 3x52 min.) This film shows how South Africa, the host of the first football World Cup on African soil, came to be the beacon of hope that it is today.

The Antarctica Challenge: (Doc., 1x52 min.) Filmmaker Mark Terry leads an expedition to Antarctica to show us the new findings made by the world's scientific community stationed there.
