

ZDF buys into German prodco

ZDF Enterprises, the commercial arm of the German public broadcaster, has acquired 49% of factual production company Hamburg DocLights. The producer specialises in nature films, docs and factual entertainment shows and ZDF Enterprises has bought a 49% stake. The current joint CEOs, Jörn Röver, Michaela Hummel and Andreas Knoblauch, will continue in their current positions.

Quelle: TBI Magazine, Februar/März 2011