Thomas Sewing
Director ZDF.archive

ZDF.archive is the library of Germany's ZDF network, Europe's largest broadcaster, which has been producing high-quality TV programming for over 40 years. Our archive contains one of the world's largest collections of TV material and stock footage, with about two million items. In addition to countless news items and tens of thousands of music performances, we have a vast amount of CGI and animations on scientific, medical and historical topics as well as investigative reports on news issues and a vast amount of educational material.

Other services: Sales agents for National Geographic Digital Motion, NBC News Archive and Film Library + WPA Film Library in German-speaking territories.
