A host of European buyers have acquired three-part drama series Bella Germania from ZDF Enterprises, the commercial arm of the German pubcaster.

Produced by Munich's Bavaria Fiction and ZDF, the series tells the story of an Italian fashion designer who reconnects with her estranged German grandfather and learns about her past. The show features both Italian and German actors.

Pubcasters Rai (Italy), RTVS (Slovakia), LTV (Latvia), TVP (Poland) and RTVE (Spain) have all licensed the series, as have Ukrainian national broadcaster Inter, Hungary's Network 4 and Russian/CIS broadcaster Russian Report TV Agency.

Bella Germania debuted on ZDF in 2019. The series was created by German screenwriter and author Daniel Speck.
