

Peter Pan series takes to the air

FOLLOWING a successful first season of The New Adventures Of Peter Pan, DQ Entertainment (DQE) and Method Animation have confirmed a second season partnership at MIPTV. Broadcasters ZDF of Germany, France Televisions, De Agostini in Italy, and Tele-Quebec, Canada are all partnering for the new production. The first season received a good response across the world and was aired on numerous channels including RAI, JCCTV, and Noga. The 3D stereo version also aired successfully on Sky Italia.

“Peter and his friends already have a huge fan following among the kids and the second season promises to be even more adventurous with lot more humour, magic and action,” Tapaas Chakravarti, CEO and chairman DQE. “DQE’s partnership with global broadcasters has been growing in strength and their faith in us has resulted in some world-class properties.” Nicole Keeb, head of international co-productions and acquisitions, children and youth, ZDF also said: “Well told stories and a stunning look make this series very special. Our audience loves the boy who doesn’t want to grow up - and so do we!

Tele-Quebec’s Laetitia de Coninck (back left); France Televisions’ Pierre Siracusa; ZDF’s Nicole Keeb; DQE’s Tapaas Chakravarti; ZDFE’s Arne Lohman (seated left); Method Animation’s Aton Soumache; and De Agostini’s Massimo Bruno