Mako Mermaids / H2O: Mermaid Adventures / Coconut, the Little Dragon

ZDF Enterprises' ZDFE.junior catalogue is home to a number of live-action hits, including the popular H2O: Just Add Water and Mako Mermaids franchises. For MIPCOM, the company has a third season of Mako Mermaids to offer buyers, as well as an animated mermaid series, H2O: Mermaid Adventures. Mako Mermaids comes from Jonathan M. Shiff Productions, while the mermaid series H2O: Mermaid Adventures comes from Les Cartooneurs Associés and Fantasia Animation. "We are not just the 'Home of Mermaids'—starting off the worldwide mermaid mania with the international distribution of series such as H2O: Just Add Water and Mako Mermaids—we also have an enormous selection of high-quality animation and live-action productions for all target groups," says Peter Lang, the VP of ZDFE.junior. There's also the animated preschool series Coconut, the Little Dragon from Caligari Film- und Fernsehproduktions. The series is based on a best-selling book property that has sold more than 6 million copies worldwide. "Our kids' slate is comprised of high-end series produced with renowned partners in the industry, many of them through international co-productions," says Lang. "As such, the content is created by an ensemble of great international partners, thus ensuring that the storytelling is universal and can travel across cultural borders."

"ZDF Enterprises' department for children's and youth programs, ZDFE.junior, has a vast catalogue with anything that any programmer might possibly need to satisfy the viewing hunger of young audiences."
