Our Continents is coproduced by ZDFE and Arte
German pubcaster ZDF has ordered a factual series about the continents, with commercial arm ZDF Enterprises (ZDFE) taking global distribution rights.

Coproduced by ZDFE and European cultural broadcaster Arte, Our Continents (6×50') explores the milestones of each continent's geology, climate, flora and fauna, revealing how they have influenced the direction and evolution of human civilisation.

Our Continents, which is being produced by Story

House Media Group, will begin filming later this year and is due for delivery in early 2023.

In related news, ZDFE has added the third season of German period drama franchise Ku'damm to its catalogue.

Three-parter Ku'damm 63 (3×90'), the follow-up to Ku'damm 56 and 59, is produced by UFA Fiction for ZDF. Set in post-war Berlin, the Ku'damm series follows a conservative matriarch and owner of a prestigious dance school and her three daughters, as they each struggle to find their place as women in a changing world.
